Liberty National Bank Approved for a Grant to Help 2007 Flood Victims

ADA, Ohio – William C. Carr, President and CEO of Liberty National Bank, recently announced the approval of the American Dream Homeownership Challenge grant from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati to help recent 2007 Flood Victims purchase or build a new home.

With the combined sponsorship of the HHWP Community Action Commission in Findlay, Ohio, the American Dream Homeownership Challenge is a grant that will help create homeownership opportunities for three households displaced by the 2007 floods in Northeast Ohio. The units purchased must be located in Hardin, Allen, Hancock and Putnam Counties in Ohio. The grant will provide three households with a maximum of $20,000 each towards a new home purchased or built. In addition to the grant money, Liberty National Bank is also going to waive any application fee for the approved homeowners. For qualification guidelines of the American Dream Homeownership Challenge grant, please contact Sharon Music at 419-634-5015.

Liberty National Bank is an Equal Housing Lender, Member FDIC. Liberty National Bank is a financial institution offering traditional banking products and services, as well as an array of non-traditional banking services such as investment planning and electronic banking options. Liberty National Bank operates four (4) branches in Hardin and Logan Counties and currently maintains over $179 million in assets.
