Ronald L. Zimmerly, Jr. Promoted to President and CEO of Liberty National Bank

KENTON, Ohio – The Board of Directors of Liberty National Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Ronald L. Zimmerly, Jr. to President and CEO of Liberty National Bank. Mr. Zimmerly assumes the new title on July 1, 2009, replacing William C. Carr, past President and CEO of Liberty National Bank, who retired on June 30, 2009.

Ronald L. Zimmerly, Jr. is a twenty-three year veteran of the banking industry. Mr. Zimmerly joined Liberty National Bank in 1999 as Vice President of Commercial Lending and was promoted in 2004 to Executive Vice President/Senior Loan Officer for Liberty National Bank. In 1986, Mr. Zimmerly graduated from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Economics, with a specialization in Finance. He currently serves on the Board of the Hardin County Economic Development Council, Discovery Riders Board of Directors and was chairman for the Hardin County Chamber and Business Alliance. Mr. Zimmerly is located at Liberty National Bank's Kenton office. Ron, his wife Kelli and their family reside in Bellefontaine.
